

The Scarlet Letter Summer Reading Project - 2020
English III

Book Annotations—Chapters 1-3

Write the following Annotations inside of your text. Details should be highlighted or CLEARLY underlined, and the margin notes should be placed at the BOTTOM of the page that most corresponds with the margin note.

PLEASE REMEMBER a few times in each chapter, you should write a brief scene description at the TOP OF THE PAGE. A few words will suffice. You just need enough to give yourself a brief guidepost when we flip back through the book later.

Chapter One

- Chapter one describes the drab, somber setting of the narrative. As the narrator tells us, this place ultimately proves to be a prison or a cemetery for most of its inhabitants. Find and underline/highlight at least five SPECIFIC DETAILS that reinforce the idea that this place is a prison.
- Chapter one establishes one of the most important symbols in this book, the rosebush that grows next to the prison door. Highlight the section of text that describes the rosebush. In a margin note at the bottom of the page, explain your thoughts about the rosebush. How does this symbol contrast with the rest of the chapter?

Chapter Two

- Find and underline/highlight at least three specific comments that the women in the crowd make about Hester Prynne.
- Find and underline/highlight at least three references to Hester Prynne's child.
- Margin Note: In addition to judging Hester for committing adultery, the crowd judges Hester Prynne in other ways. What do the women in the crowd say about the construction of the letter "A" on Hester's dress? Ultimately, what do you think motivates the women's hatred of Hester Prynne?
- Find and underline/highlight at least three specific references to Hester Prynne's past
- Margin Note: What exactly do you think is the purpose of the large scaffolding in the center of the town square?

Chapter Three

- Find and underline/highlight at least three specific descriptions of Hester Prynne's husband, Roger Chillingworth.
- Margin Note: Why doesn't Chillingworth immediately reveal that he is Hester Prynne's husband?
- Find and underline/highlight the details of Hester Prynne's punishment.
- Find and underline/highlight at least one detail that describes the personality of each of the town fathers.
- Margin Note: Summarize the point of Reverend Wilson's sermon as Hester stands on the scaffold.
- During the sermon, the town seems to think that the scarlet letter is glowing. Find and underline/highlight a reference to the "glowing" letter.

The Scarlet Letter

Chapter Four

- Chillingworth clearly makes Hester afraid and uncomfortable. Find and Highlight at least three specific details that show Hester’s fear and discomfort.
- Find and highlight the section of the text where Chillingworth chastises himself for believing that he would be able to make a beautiful woman like Hester happy.
- Margin Note: What do you think it means that Hester says that Chillingworth may be “The Black Man”?
- Margin Note: Given the tone of Chillingworth’s “interview” with Hester, it is clear that while he is angry with her, he does not plan on hurting Hester directly. What does Chillingworth want to do?

Chapter Five

- Find and underline/highlight at least three specific details that demonstrate Hester’s status as an outcast in the town.
- Find and underline/highlight three specific descriptions of Hester’s needlework.
- Hester’s needlework is in high demand from the townspeople for all major functions and life events except for one. Find and underline the section that describes this solitary life event.
- Margin Note: Why is it ironic and hypocritical that Hester’s needlework is in such high demand?

Chapter Six

- Most of this chapter is dedicated to describing Pearl. Find and underline/highlight at least three SPECIFIC details that highlight DIFFERENT elements of Pearl’s personality.
- Find and underline/highlight at least three examples of the townspeople or the other children being cruel to Pearl.
- Find and underline/highlight the section of the text that describes Pearl touching/playing with the Scarlet Letter.
- Margin Notes: What specific personality traits has Pearl inherited from her mother?

Chapter Seven

- Find and underline/highlight Hester’s two reasons for visiting the Governor’s mansion.
- Find and underline/highlight the section of the text that describes Pearl scaring off the children that fling mud.
- Find and underline/highlight the section describing the reflection of the Scarlet letter in the suit of armor.
- Margin Notes: What causes Pearl to scream and cry as she looks out the window? Why is this significant?

Chapter Eight

- Find and underline/highlight at least three details that demonstrate Reverend Wilson’s dislike for Pearl and Hester.
- Find and underline/highlight Chillingworth’s reaction to the news that Hester will keep custody of Pearl.
- Find and underline/highlight Mistress Hibbins’ invitation to Hester.
- Margin Notes: Compare and Contrast Reverend Dimmesdale’s reaction to Hester Prynne with the other members of the town council (Bellingham and Wilson)
